

Frequently Asked Questions

11. When I send a message, where does it go? Similar to calling the clinic, messages are routed to the nurse, medical assistants, and staff who work closely with your physician. The nurse, medical assistant, or staff member may respond directly or route the message to the physician. All messages sent to the clinic become part of your medical record.

Return to FAQs